THE SJC CAVALCADE OF STARS

Heidi Jugovic-(Baker's Wife): Heidi, a senior Psychology major, is now performing in her third lead in the musicals at SJC. This is her favorite role because of the sex involved and the fact that she gets to annoy Matt again as his wife. Her current plans for next year are moving to California to sell tie-dyes on the beach with her friend, Mika. She would like to thank her parents, Val and Koral, for always supporting her in music.

Matthew Owens-(Baker): Matthew is a long-time Columbian Player and also its president this year. The Communication and Theatre Arts (CTA) major plans on attending graduate school next semester to study theatre education to eventually become a professor of theatre. He has greatly enjoyed all of the productions and the great people he has worked with over his SJC theatrical career.

Andrew Hicks-(Cinderella's Prince): Andrew is a Columbian Players veteran who is now in his eleventh and final SJC stage production. After graduation in May, the Math-Physics major plans on teaching in Tanzania before setting off to earn his financial fortune. Andy would like to thank, as always, his friends and family for their support in all of his endeavors.

Jenny Palecek-(Jack's Mother): Jenny is another senior that the Columbian Players will miss when she graduates. She has been in many productions at SJC with her role of Penny in You Can't Take It With You standing out as her favorite part. The Psychology major plans on working with underprivileged families and children after graduation.

Matthew Jenks-(Steward): Matthew is a senior Chemistry major who is now performing in his third musical at SJC. He enjoys the role of the Steward because it lets his "true nature come out." In the future, Matthew plans on taking a year off to research in the field of chemistry, win the Nobel Prize in chemistry, and then go to graduate school.

Theresa Richer-(Cinderella): Theresa, a sophomore Psychology major, is performing in her fourth full production here at SJC. She considers this role and show to be her favorite so far because of the challenge and great experience it afforded. After SJC, she plans to go to graduate school and study social work, specializing in child welfare.

Sara Reasoner-(Witch): Sara is a younger Columbian Player, but still one of its most experienced. The sophomore CTA major's most memorable moment on the SJC stage was smoking for the first time in Picnic. She likes this role the best because she gets to be in control. After she graduates, she would like to pursue a career in public relations.

Stephen V. Gilles-(Jack): Stephen is a Philosophy/Religion major and is a three-year member of the Columbian Players. His favorite role Jud Fry in the Carnegie Players production of Okla-homa this summer. After playing a obsessive psychopath, Stephen is "really stretching his acting ability" to play Jack, a sweet, innocent, yet foolish, young lad.

Kimberly Grote-(Little Red Riding Hood): Kimberly is a junior who is a veteran with the musicals here at SJC. She has performed in both 1940's Radio Hour and How to Succeed... and her favorite role was Rosemary in the latter musical. The Marketing major's future plans involve a career in advertising.

Jeannette Catuara-(Rapunzel): Jeannette has performed with the Columbian Players since her freshman year. The junior Sociology/CTA major's favorite role was Smitty in How to Succeed... because of her attitude. Her future plans are to go into theatre or music, or if all else fails, counseling.

Michael Mancuso-(Rapunzel's Prince): Mick is a sophomore Business Management major and is making his debut on the SJC stage. His career goal is to someday start his own business.

Mary Fortman-(Narrator): Mary, a sophomore Economics major, is now in her second musical with the Columbian Players. In the past, she has been a choreographer and taught ballet and tap. Her last work was done with the Fort Wayne Civic Theatre.

William Shannon-(Wolf): William is a junior history major who has performed in the last four major productions here at SJC. His favorite role is Howard Bevans in Picnic. His career plans include becoming a strongman leader of a military junta in some banana republic.

Cralge Phipps-(Mysterious Old Man): Craig is now in his second SJC production. The sophomore Music major would like to become a high school music director after graduation. He would like to thank parents for their dedication and Jill for her patience.

Megan Bodnar-(Cinderella's Stepmother): Megan, a freshman Biology major, has acted in all three Columbian Players productions during her short career here. She hopes to eventually become a chiropractor.

Amanda Michelle McKirgan-(Florinda): Amanda is a sophomore Elementary Education major and this is her second musical at SJC. She plans on going to law school after completing her undergraduate degree.

Marilyn Tebbe-(Lucinda): Marilyn, a freshman, is making her first appearance on the SJC stage though she has been involved in other musicals elsewhere. Her career plans involve becoming a professor of theatre.

Roger Burns-(Cinderella's Father): Roger is a sophomore Philosophy/Psychology major with an interesting sense of humor. If it was not a memorable experience for him, the tree falling on his head during practice certainly was for other cast members.

Elizabeth Musick-(Cinderella's Mother): Elizabeth, a freshman Math major, is a rookie on the SJC stage. She lends her talents to the Columbian Players and the choir all the way from McAllen, Texas.

Amanda Golns-(Granny): Amanda is also a first-time performer for the Columbian Players. The freshman Biology-Chemistry major plans to go to graduate school and get a job doing some type of scientific research.

Kathy Jarowicz-(Giant): Kathy, a junior Mass Communications major has been involved with every SJC production since being here, but this role is her "first somewhat acting role" and first curtain call since "techies never get recognized."

Susan Welter-(Snow White): Susan is a sophomore Political Science major who is participating in her first SJC production.

Dana Johnson-(Sleeping Beauty): Dana is a freshman CTA major and this is her first Columbian Players production. After SJC, Dana would like to pursue a life in politics.

John Rahe-(Director): John Rahe has been the Director of Theatre at SJC for 10 years and has produced and directed over 25 plays and musicals during that time. In addition, Professor Rahe has directed and acted for several other organizations and has presented workshops on acting and directing to various groups.

Jeremy Hoy-(Musical Director): Jeremy is a sophomore Church Music major who is the musical director for his second SJC production. He also is the Director of Music for Campus Ministry. He plans to get his Master's degree in Church Music at SJC. His career goals are to become a parish music and liturgy director or a high school music teacher.

Kristin Darlotis-(Stage Manager): Kristin, a sophomore CTA major all the way from Tallahassee, FL, has worked back stage in previous SJC productions and is now running the cues. In the future, she would like to get into hotel and restaurant management.

Heidi Rahe-(Costumes): For almost ten years, Heidi Rahe has poured all her creative energy into a burst of costumes twice a year, thus proving the twin dangers of a non-traditional imagination and carrying the gene for color-blindness. Her work is easily identified by the white zigzag stitching and the bits of trim all over her kitchen.
